Two Weeks Capacity Building Programme for Young Social Science Faculty Members

(January 28-February 8, 2019)

Sponsored by

Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi

Introduction

Social science research is characterised by a diversity of theoretical perspectives, methodological strategies, data collection practices and analysis techniques. This has made it always necessary to provide training and orientation on a continuous basis for researchers to equip them with advanced methodological skills. It has been observed that many researchers could not produce research works of high quality because they are either not in touch with the latest research tools and techniques or do not have proper orientation to use the traditional research methods efficiently. The problem has further been aggravated by lack of opportunities for the social researchers to refine their methodological skills and to get insight in fresh areas of research in their respective fields. On the other hand the rapid advancement of knowledge in all disciplines of social sciences has made research an activity of solving problems, which adds new dimensions and generalisations on the basis of gathered empirical evidences. Recognising this need, M.P. Institute of Social Science Research, Ujjain (MPISSR) is organising a Two Weeks Capacity Building Programme for Young Social Science Faculty Members from January 28 to February 8, 2019 sponsored by Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi.

The objectives of this programme are to develop capacity for conceptualising and writing research proposals, enhance skills to prepare an appropriate research design, conducting literature review, formulating research questions and hypotheses, collection of data and analysis, enhance capacity for writing a research paper for publication and developing the capacity for planning and writing a book.. The training programme strives to highlight some emerging philosophical and methodological issues emerging in social science research. The programme will inculcate discussions on formation and selection of a research problem; design of research; sampling techniques; tools of research; collection of data; analysis of data; interpretation and discussion of results and report writing. The aim of the training programme is to enable the participants to select and make use of suitable research methods; to use appropriate research tools and to analyse their research questions with appropriate analysis of data in their research and to convert their research work in to research papers and books.
