National Training Workshop on Advancing Social Science Research: Innovative Tools, Techniques & Digital Resources (4 to 8 August 2025)

The renewed role of research techniques and methods by making use of innovative tools, techniques and e-resources available in various libraries for promoting information resources as well as improving the quality of research in social sciences are issues of prime concern in present context. Presently various tools and techniques are being applied in social science research for data visualization, data analysis and managing information for different purposes in research. The workshop is aimed to acquaint participants engaged in research to enhance their knowledge to carry out their research studies in a systematic manner by using various tools and techniques available for different purposes at different levels of research.

This workshop will make an effort to serve the purpose of providing effective information on e-resources and the use of various research tools available for retrieving relevant information, review of literature, analysis, referencing, and writing research reports, and plagiarism check. Most of the research tools are Open-Source Software and are freely available to the wider network of social science research. The focus of the workshop will be on bibliometric analysis, content analysis, MS Excel, Smart PLS or N-Vivo and SPSS, computer and internet-based applications for research and the use of Open Source Software like Mendeley/Zotero, Data Visualization Techniques, Overleaf/LATEX, Software for Plagiarism check like Turnitin, WordPress, and other useful techniques for various purposes in research.

Applications are invited from young faculties and research scholars in social sciences, humanities, librarians and information managers of universities, colleges and research institutions. The workshop is fully sponsored. Selected participants will be provided with free lodging and boarding and out-station participants will be given modest accommodation in the MPISSR Guest House, Ujjain on shared basis. Travel for outstation participants (Sleeper Class rail fare for shortest route only) will be reimbursed on the production of the ticket. Applications in the prescribed format should reach on or before July 15, 2025. Only shortlisted applicants will be communicated for participation.
